

Colin and Ailsa Turbayne
International Berkeley Essay
Prize Competition

Professor and the late Mrs. Colin Turbayne established an annual Berkeley Essay Prize competition in conjunction with the Philosophy Department at the University of Rochester.

The next deadline for submitting papers is November 1, 1992. Submissions on any aspect of Berkeley's philosophy are welcome. Essays should be new and unpublished and should be written in English and not exceed 5,000 words in length. Submissions will be judged by members of a review board selected by the Department of Philosophy at the University of Rochester. The winner will be announced March 1, 1993 and will receive a prize of $1,000.

Submissions should be sent to:
Professor Richard Feldman
Chair, Department of Philosophy
University of Rochester
Rochester, NY 14627-0078

Hume Studies is devoted to historical and systematic research on David Hume.

Manuscripts should be typewritten, double-spaced, xerox or ribbon copy, on white bond paper 8 1/2 x 11 inches with wide margins. Footnotes should be assembled on separate sheets and placed at the end of the article. Contributors are encouraged to limit papers to 15 pages of text. Receipt of manuscripts will be acknowledged, but manuscripts cannot be returned unless accompanied by an addressed envelope and Canadian postage or International Reply Coupons for those living outside Canada. Contributors should keep a copy of their manuscript.

Hume Studies is published twice a year in April and November. Manuscripts will be accepted in English, French, German, and Italian. Contributors are requested to use the Selby-Bigge editions of the Treatise and the Enquiries and the Kemp Smith edition of the Dialogues. Quotations should be verified carefully and punctuation and spelling should not be modified since there is at present no standardization. Authors of papers published in Hume Studies will receive gratis five copies of the issue. Additional copies may be purchased by making arrangements with the Editor.

The price per subscription per year is $30.00 for Institutions and $15.00 for Individuals (in Canadian funds). Back issues may be obtained, if available, from the Managing Editor for $45.00 per year. Back issues of Hume Studies are available in microform from Micromedia Limited, 20 Victoria Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5C 2N8.

Requests for further information should be addressed to the Editor.
