

Eighteenth-Century Studies

Eighteenth-Century Studies is the distinguished quarterly journal produced by the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, and was the first scholarly journal devoted to the interdisciplinary study of the eighteenth century. Since 1970, ECS has been the official journal of the Society; all members receive this journal automatically. Institutional memberships and library subscriptions to ECS are also available. With a circulation of about 3,000, ECS is the largest North American journal devoted to eighteenth-century studies; it is also widely and highly respected around the world.

The American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies also publishes the quarterly News Circular, an indexed directory of membership, the program for the Annual Meeting, the biennial pamphlet "Teaching the Eighteenth-Century," and the annual Studies in Eighteenth Century Culture, a volume representing the best papers delivered at the ASECS Annual Meeting and the many regional meetings of the eighteenth-century organizations affiliated with ASECS.

This volume contains ten new essays on a priori knowledge by authors from Canada, the United States, Australia, and Europe, with an introduction by the editors. Topics addressed include the nature, explanation, and indispensability of a priori knowledge, its connection with analytic truth, its place in mathematics, in logic, and in empirical theory, and the contribution of Kant and Quine to these topics. The focus is on twentieth century contributions to these issues, but most essays also address earlier discussions at some length, and the essays that focus on Kant also relate his views to more recent discussions.
