Twenty-Third International Hume Conference

The Hume Society
in collaboration with the

British Society for the History of Philosophy
University of Nottingham

Nottingham, U.K.

July 15-19, 1996

Conference Co-Directors:

John Biro (University of Florida)
Roger Gallie (University of Nottingham)

The Hume Society is pleased to issue in collaboration with the British Society for the History of Philosophy a CALL FOR PAPERS for the Twenty-Third International Hume Conference, to be held at the University of Nottingham July 15–19, 1996. Papers may be on any aspect of Hume's writings, but since 1996 is the bicentenary of Thomas Reid's death, papers on aspects of his writings will be welcome too. The conference directors will especially welcome papers on justice and related themes in view of Nottingham's connection with a well known knave and on any other theme on which Hume and Reid were in debate.

Papers should be no more than thirty minutes reading length; the author's name should appear only on a front cover sheet to facilitate blind reviewing. Papers may be in English, French, or German, but an abstract in English is required for all papers. Four copies of each paper and its abstract should be submitted.

Submissions must be postmarked by November 1, 1995.
Please send and sent to:

Professor Saul Traiger
Executive Secretary of the Hume Society
Department of Philosophy
Occidental College

Eighteenth-Century Studies

Eighteenth-Century Studies is the distinguished quarterly journal produced by the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, and was the first scholarly journal devoted to the interdisciplinary study of the eighteenth century. Since 1970, ECS has been the official journal of the Society; all members receive this journal automatically. Institutional memberships and library subscriptions to ECS are also available. With a circulation of about 3,000, ECS is the largest North American journal devoted to eighteenth-century studies; it is also widely and highly respected around the world.

The American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies also publishes the quarterly News Circular, an indexed directory of membership, the program for the Annual Meeting, the biennial pamphlet "Teaching the Eighteenth-Century," and the annual Studies in Eighteenth Century Culture, a volume representing the best papers delivered at the ASECS Annual Meeting and the many regional meetings of the eighteenth-century organizations affiliated with ASECS.
