Acknowledgments

This issue of Hume Studies is published in cooperation with the Eighteenth-Century Scottish Studies Society. Earlier versions of the articles in this issue were originally presented at the joint conference of the Hume Society and the Eighteenth-Century Scottish Studies Society at the University of Ottawa in July 1993. The editors thank David Raynor, Department of Philosophy, University of Ottawa, for editorial assistance.

The Editors of Hume Studies extend appreciation to the Hume Studies host institution, the University of Utah, which provides critical support for the editorial and business office of the journal. Patricia Hanna, Dean of Humanities, and the Philosophy Department, chaired by Peter Appleby, contribute ongoing support.

---

John W. Davis (York University) founded Hume Studies in 1975 with the support of the Philosophy Department of the University of Western Ontario. As Editor and subsequently as Book Review Editor, he contributed generously of his scholarship, time, and commitment to the success of Hume Studies, for which the community of Hume scholars is indebted and grateful.
