

Call for Papers

Twenty-fourth Hume Society Conference

Monterey, California

July 29 - August 2, 1997

Conference Co-Directors:

Elizabeth Radcliffe (Santa Clara University, USA)

Tatsuya Sakamoto (Keio University, Japan)

Kenneth Winkler (Wellesley College, USA)

The Hume Society is pleased to announce a call for papers for the Twenty-fourth Hume Society Conference, to be held in Monterey, California, July 29 – August 2, 1997. Submitted papers may be on any aspect of Hume's writings, although the conference directors particularly encourage submissions on the following themes:

Hume and the Sciences

Hume and Moral Rationalism

Nature and Convention

Plans for the conference include sessions featuring recent work by Hume scholars from Japan, and the conference directors encourage submissions from Hume scholars throughout the Pacific Rim.

Papers should be no more than thirty minutes reading length with self-references deleted for blind reviewing; the author's name should appear only on a front cover sheet. Papers may be in English, French, or German, but an abstract in English is required for all papers. Submit papers and abstracts in triplicate.

Submissions must be postmarked by November 1, 1996.

Send papers to:

Eighteenth-Century Studies

Eighteenth-Century Studies is the distinguished quarterly journal produced by the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, and was the first scholarly journal devoted to the interdisciplinary study of the eighteenth century. Since 1970, ECS has been the official journal of the Society; all members receive this journal automatically. Institutional memberships and library subscriptions to ECS are also available. With a circulation of about 3,000, ECS is the largest North American journal devoted to eighteenth-century studies; it is also widely and highly respected around the world.

The American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies also publishes the quarterly News Circular, an indexed directory of membership, the program for the Annual Meeting, the biennial pamphlet "Teaching the Eighteenth-Century," and the annual Studies in Eighteenth Century Culture, a volume representing the best papers delivered at the ASECS Annual Meeting and the many regional meetings of the eighteenth-century organizations affiliated with ASECS.

For information about Eighteenth-Century Studies, or any information on the Society's activities and membership, please call or write:
