

Eighteenth-Century Studies

Eighteenth-Century Studies is the distinguished quarterly journal produced by the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, and was the first scholarly journal devoted to the interdisciplinary study of the eighteenth century. Since 1970, ECS has been the official journal of the Society; all members receive this journal automatically. Institutional memberships and library subscriptions to ECS are also available. With a circulation of about 3,000, ECS is the largest North American journal devoted to eighteenth-century studies; it is also widely and highly respected around the world.

The American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies also publishes the quarterly News Circular, an indexed directory of membership, the program for the Annual Meeting, the biennial pamphlet "Teaching the Eighteenth-Century," and the annual Studies in Eighteenth Century Culture, a volume representing the best papers delivered at the ASECS Annual Meeting and the many regional meetings of the eighteenth-century organizations affiliated with ASECS.
