

31st Annual Hume Society Conference

To be held in Tokyo, Japan, hosted by Keio University.

August 2 – 7, 2004

Conference Directors:

Masaki Ichinose, Tokyo University

Tatsuya Sakamoto, Keio University

Francis W. Dauer, University of California, Santa Barbara

Saul Traiger, Occidental College

“Industry, Knowledge, and Humanity”

Thus industry, knowledge, and humanity, are linked together by an indissoluble chain, and are found, from experience as well as reason, to be peculiar to the more polished, and, what are commonly denominated, the more luxurious ages. (Hume, “Of Refinement in the Arts”)

Lodging in Tokyo

The Shinagawa Prince Hotel is a huge international hotel with a variety of business and leisure facilities. The hotel is the best accommodation for a conference at Keio University, just ten minutes by train which departs every two minutes. Special shuttle-bus service for the conference participants is negotiable. The current room rate per person per night is from 9,800 yen ($82.00 U.S.) for single occupancy, and from 7250 yen ($60.00 U.S.) for double occupancy. A room-sharing option will be included in the registration form. A special conference rate is to be negotiated with the hotel. For details, see the hotel’s website, <http://www2.princehotels.co.jp/app_room/epiq0010.asp?hotel=007>.

For information on the conference as it develops, visit the conference’s website at:

<http://humesociety.org/tokyo/index.html>

The conference directors are pleased to acknowledge the generous support of the Japanese Society for British Philosophy and the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science.