

Acknowledgments

The editors acknowledge the generous support of the University of Guelph and the University of Oxford, and the editorial assistance of Cheryl Keall of the University of Guelph. We would also like to acknowledge the assistance of Corina David as copy-editor.

Notes to Contributors

The editors welcome original analyses or interpretations of Hume's writings and original research concerning any aspect of Hume's life, influences, intellectual milieu, or reception. We actively solicit work concerning Hume's contributions to, or influences on, any field of endeavour, including philosophy, history, politics, economics, psychology, and anthropology. We particularly welcome work that explores or sheds light on the contemporary relevance of Hume's contributions and influences.

The editors strongly encourage submission of articles in electronic form, either as e-mail attachments or on disk. All submissions should be word-processed or typed, double-spaced, prepared for anonymous review by referees, and accompanied by a brief abstract. Electronic submissions in Word or WordPerfect are preferred; paper submissions should be in duplicate. Articles may be submitted in English, French, German, or Italian. Quotations from Hume's Treatise and Enquiries should be cited by section and paragraph number, and based on the new Clarendon Edition texts. Page references should also be provided to the earlier editions prepared by Selby-Bigge and Nidditch. For details, see <http://www.humestudies.org/notes.htm>. Authors are responsible for accurate quotations and should not modify punctuation or spelling.

Authors of accepted articles will receive a journal style sheet and instructions for electronic submission of the final version. Page proofs will require immediate review; author changes will not be accepted at this stage.

Electronic submissions and related correspondence should be sent to humestud@uoguelph.ca. Paper submissions and related correspondence should be sent to:

Peter Loftson
Co-Editor, Hume Studies
Department of Philosophy
University of Guelph
Guelph, ON N1G 2W1
Canada

Authors will receive two copies of the journal and have the opportunity to purchase additional copies at a reasonable cost. Authors are free to use material in subsequent publications written or edited by themselves, provided that Hume Studies is acknowledged as the original place of publication.

Book Reviews

Books are accepted for review on the understanding that a review cannot be guaranteed. Hume Studies welcomes offers to review books. Books for review and book review correspondence should be sent to:

Karánn Durland
Book Review Editor, Hume Studies
Austin College
900 N. Grand Ave.
Sherman, Texas
75090-4400
U.S.A