Call for Papers Hume Society

Ninth Hume Conference

Queens University
Kingston, Ontario

October 24-26, 1980

The 1980 meeting of the Hume Society will be held at Queens University, Kingston, Ontario on October 24-26. Papers for the meeting should be submitted by June 30. Inasmuch as the Hume Society subscribes to the principle of blind refereeing, authors should delete self-references from the body and notes of papers submitted. The customary reading length of papers accepted as part of the program of the Hume Conference is 25 minutes. Four copies should be mailed to the Secretary of the Society, James King, Department of Philosophy, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL 60115. (No copies will be returned to the authors.) Persons wishing to serve as commentators or as chairmen of sessions are invited to notify the Secretary.

Details about local arrangements and overnight lodging will be printed in the next number of the Bulletin.
