

Call for Papers Hume Society

Eleventh Hume Conference

York University
Toronto, Ontario

August 24-27, 1982

The 1982 meeting of the Hume Society will be held at York University, Toronto, Ontario on August 24-27. Papers for the meeting should be submitted by June 1. Inasmuch as the Hume Society subscribes to the principle of blind refereeing, authors should delete self-references from the body and notes of papers submitted. The customary reading length of papers accepted as part of the program of the Hume Conference is 25 minutes. Four copies should be mailed to the Secretary of the Society, James King, Department of Philosophy, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL 60115. (No copies will be returned to the authors.) Persons wishing to serve as commentators or as chairmen of sessions are invited to notify the Secretary.

Questions about local arrangements and accommodations should be sent to Stanley Tweyman, Program Chairman, Eleventh Hume Conference, Glendon College, York University, Toronto, Ontario M4N 3M6, Canada.
