

50th Annual Hume Society Conference

Hosted by the University of Oxford and Oxford Brookes University
Oxford, United Kingdom
July 1 to 6, 2024

“Hume: Past, Present, and Future”

The Hume Society is pleased to announce its 50th annual Hume conference, a special jubilee. We invite papers on any topic relating to Hume studies. We particularly welcome papers on the conference themes:

Oxford Connections: Hobbes, Boyle, Locke ...
Hume and Reason
Developments in Hume’s Ethics and Its Influence
New Narratives and the Next 50 Years

Papers should be no more than thirty minutes reading length (4000 words) and should include an abstract (200 words).

All self-references should be deleted for anonymous review.

Papers and abstracts must be submitted in English.

Papers should not have been published by the date of the conference.

Hume Society Young Scholar Awards are given to qualifying graduate students whose papers are accepted through the normal anonymous review process.

Deadline for Submissions: December 1, 2023

Instructions for submissions and conference details will be posted at www.HumeSociety.org in early Fall 2023.
