

Call for Papers

The 51st Annual Hume Society Conference
Hosted by McMaster University
In collaboration with the Bertrand Russell Research Centre

July 14-18, 2025
Hamilton, Ontario

The Hume Society is pleased to announce the 51st annual conference. We invite papers in all areas of Hume studies, especially submissions on the conference themes:

Hume and the Development of Analytic Philosophy
Hume and Feminism
Hume and the Philosophy of Emotion

Deadline for Submissions: November 15, 2024

Papers should be no more than thirty minutes reading length (4000 words) and should include an abstract (200 words).

Submissions must be prepared for anonymous review (references to self should be in the third person).

Papers and abstracts must be submitted in English.

Papers should not have been published by the date of the conference.

Hume Society Emerging Scholar Awards are given to graduate students whose papers are accepted or invited through the normal review process. The Hume Society anticipates funding graduate student presenters and commentators with receipted travel-reimbursements of up to $800 and $400 USD, respectively. Other early career scholars may also be eligible for funding. Please contact the EVP-T, Jason Fiset, with questions: vicepresident@humesociety.org

Submission Instructions

You must first create an EasyChair account here, if you don't have one:

<https://easychair.org/account2/signin>

Then log in and go to the submission link:

<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=hume2025>

Conference Directors:

Donald Ainslie (University of Toronto)

Allauren Forbes (McMaster University)

Liz Goodnick (Metropolitan State University Denver)

Alexander Klein (Bertrand Russell Centre, McMaster University)

Manuel Vasquez Villavicencio (McMaster University)

Conference Website: <http://51sthumeconference.humanities.mcmaster.ca>